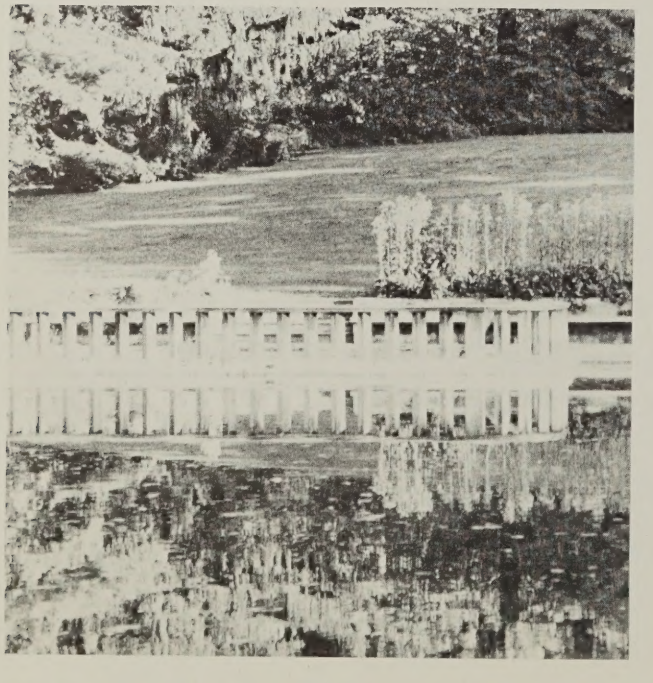
CHAIN AND ANCHORS
FAIRFAX HALL
WAYNESBORO, VIRGINIA

MARLEAN LUMPKIN — Editor-in-Chief
LEE ALLISON — Business Manager
MISS SWANN MARKS — Sponsor

Waynesboro Public Library
600 South Wayne Ave.
Waynesboro, VA 22980

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven.

Ecclesiastes 3:1



A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

Ecclesiastes 3:2

DEDICATION

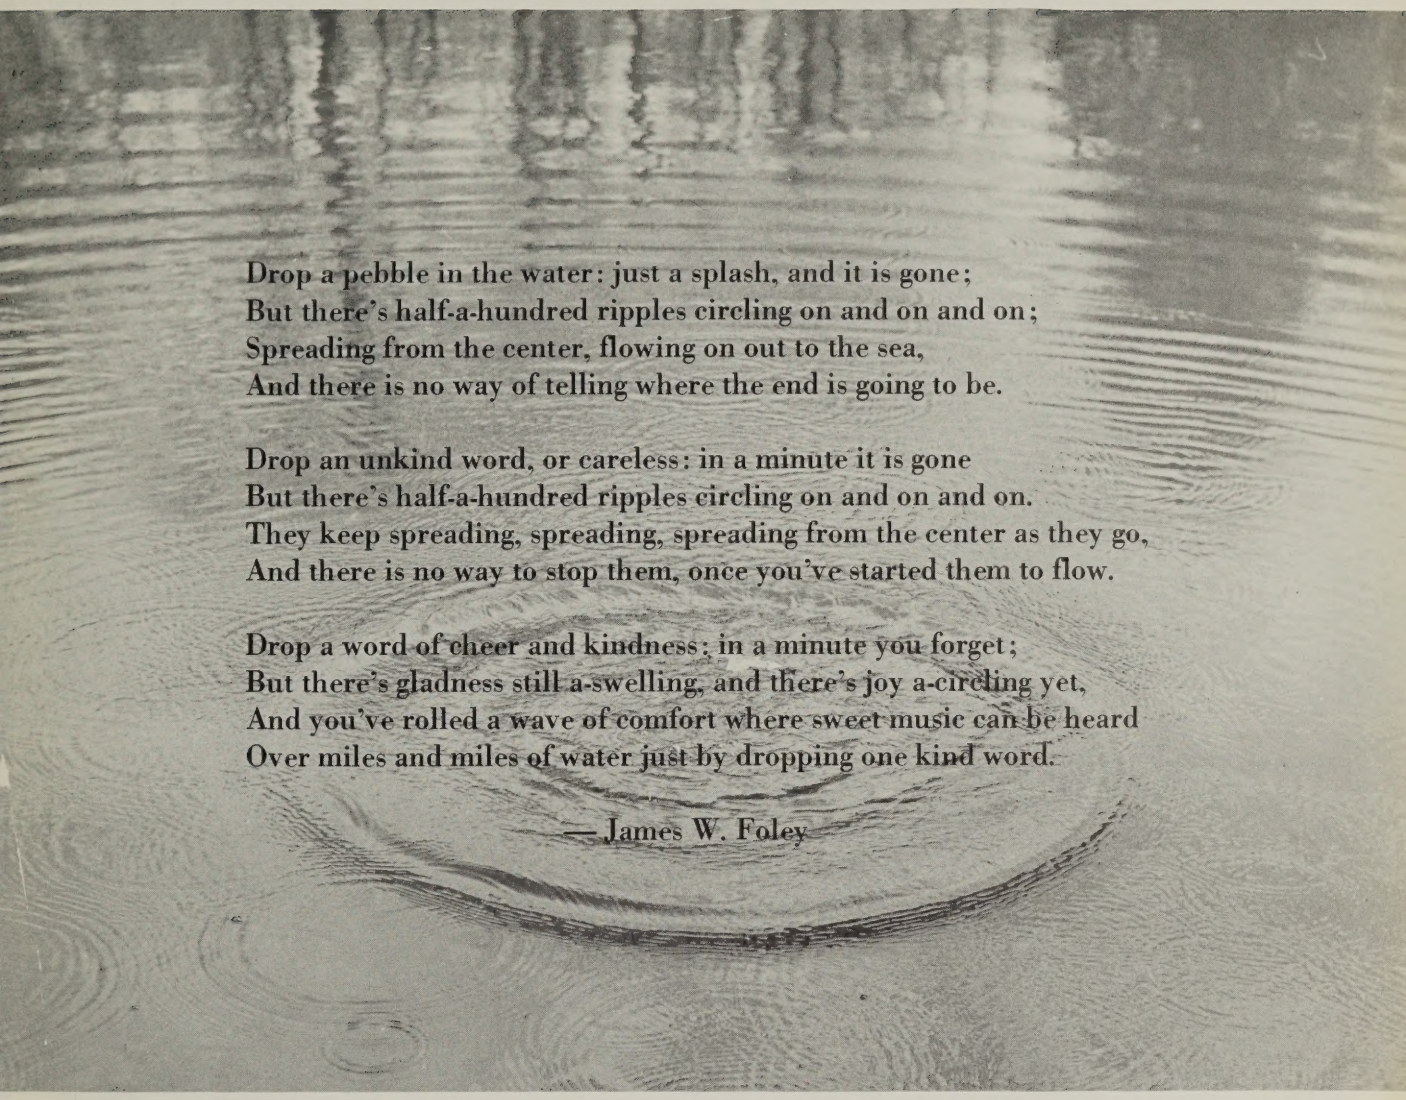
"A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down, and a time to build up."

— Ecclesiastes 3:3

Our time has come . . . . . Fairfax Hall will be no more. Only memories will remain. Those memories will live in us forever . . . . . for . . . . . memories never die.

The 1975 CHAIN AND ANCHORS is dedicated to everyone . . . . . all who have helped make Fairfax Hall what it has been over the years . . . . . students, administration, faculty, alumnae, and, with special appreciation of the Gates and Nash families, and Miss Marks, for the many, many years of love and dedication that they have contributed to Fairfax Hall.

FOREWORD



Drop a pebble in the water: just a splash, and it is gone;
But there's half-a-hundred ripples circling on and on and on;
Spreading from the center, flowing on out to the sea,
And there is no way of telling where the end is going to be.

Drop an unkind word, or careless: in a minute it is gone
But there's half-a-hundred ripples circling on and on and on.
They keep spreading, spreading, spreading from the center as they go,
And there is no way to stop them, once you've started them to flow.

Drop a word of cheer and kindness; in a minute you forget;
But there's gladness still a-swelling, and there's joy a-circling yet,
And you've rolled a wave of comfort where sweet music can be heard
Over miles and miles of water just by dropping one kind word.

—James W. Foley

VIRGINIA LEE ALLISON
"Lee"
Statesville, North Carolina

As I leave Fairfax Hall I leave many fun times yet a few hard times. I will take with me all the memories. While at Fairfax I have made many friends, ones I hope will always remain with me.

"Friends . . .
Remember."

William Locke Allison, Jr. and Lee Allison

SALLE VIRGINIA BELL
"Ding Dong"
Largo, Florida

I, Salle, (alias "Ding Dong"), leave the darkroom to Brookie, the magazines to Sallie G., my twin, and best wishes to Kathy for a great senior year. To the whole class of '76, a beautiful Ring Figure and a great bicentennial. Keep peace here and remember to live, not just exist.

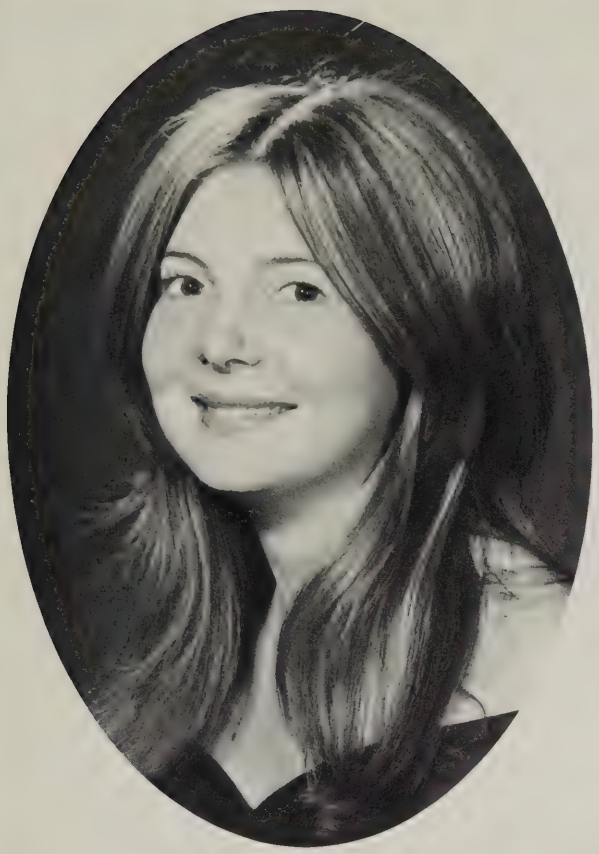
Mr. G. Richard Bell and Salle



KIMBERLY BILITER
"Kimbie"
Pikeville, Kentucky

You'll never meet friends like the ones at Fairfax. It's time to take a bigger step in life now. I'll be away from my friends but I'll never forget them. I'll never forget the good times that I spent with the best of friends. The good times go to Kathe, Tricia, Jean, Brookie, Nancy and all the others. Thanks and good luck to all!

Intramurals, 4; Cheerleader, 4.

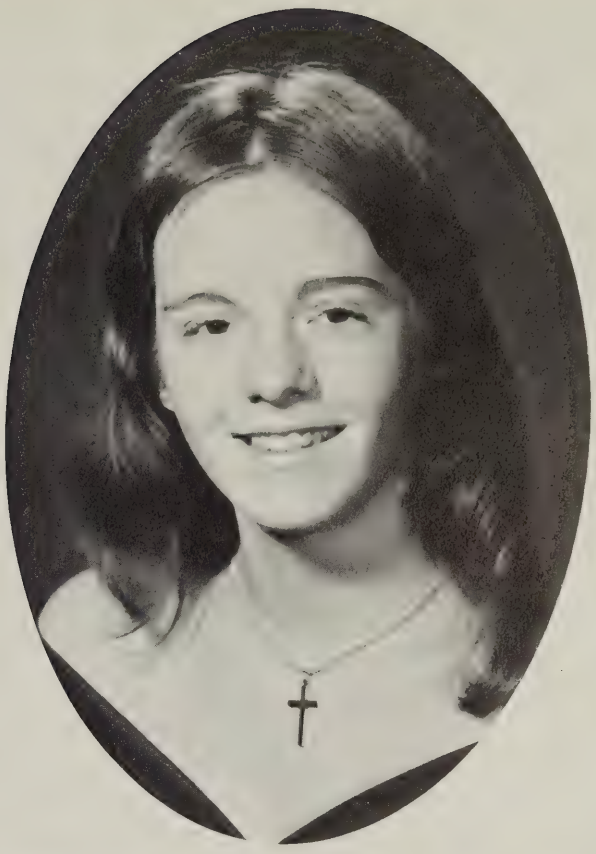
Mr. Franklin Biliter and Kim Biliter

ONNALINDA E. BYAM
"Onna"
St. Thomas, Virgin Islands

This is a thought I would like to leave to all my friends at Fairfax: if you sidestep the flower, you crush the grass instead; if you stay on the trail, you spare them both.

Intramurals, 4; Riding Club, 4.

Mr. William H. Byam and Onna Byam



MELANIE DENISE COFFEY
"Melanie"
Rocky Mount, Virginia

"And when the sky is cloudy there is still a light that shines on me; shine until tomorrow, let it be . . ."

— Lennon & McCartney

Glee Club, 4; Intramurals, 4.

Dr. Kyle W. Coffey and Melanie Coffey

PAMELA COOMBES
"Pam"
Clifton Forge, Virginia

In the pursuit of happiness half the world is on the wrong scene. They think it consists in having and getting and in being served by others. Happiness is really found in giving and in service to others. The most I can say is that I have found happiness and friends forever in the short time I have been at Fairfax Hall.

Dr. Wilfred Noble Coombes and Pam Coombes

KIMBERLY McCREA DAVIS
"Kim"
Beckley, West Virginia

I thank those people who helped me happily live through three years of Fairfax, Ann, Katie, Gruhn, and Brookie. A special thanks to Mr. Stoke, who, unknowingly, helped me keep a smile on my face . . . . . .
I love you all . . . . . .
Remember . . . . . .

JULIA LAKE DODGE
"Julie"
Gadsden, Alabama

All those yesterday pieces ease down, slowly and carefully into their allotted slots within my mind. Recorded, filed, extracted, dusted and then refiled again, but not forgotten. Yesterday — painted with fractions of love, hate, windy smiles and helium-filled balloons of hope. Fragments eased patiently hard, patiently fast; yet not without pain, each biting into my memory as would a razor. And yet my time here has been the finest I have ever known — thank you.

KATE McALISTER DUNLAP
"Kate"
Wadesboro, North Carolina

Now that I have traveled through four years in this fantasy world that rests on a knoll among the patchwork mountains, I stand at the end of the trail. I look back, and I reach out for the times I want to remember and those few people who have touched my life, and I will tuck them safely in an easily accessible bluejean pocket, carrying them with me — where? Give me a dusty, country road that plays a country song and leads me to a place where everything comes down green and full of peace of mind . . .

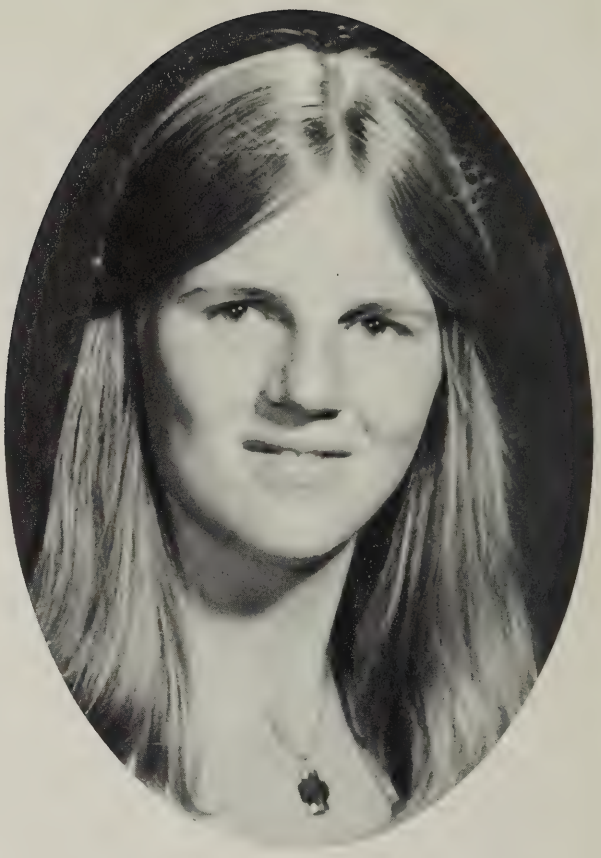
Mr. John Dunlap and Kate Dunlap



SUSAN PROCTOR ELDER
"Susan"
Farmington, Missouri

I, Susan, with all body and no mind, leave my tower and flashlight to Marion; to Hitler, my half of room 146 and crazy memories of PP. To Fairfax, my love, friendship and the most unique year of my life.

two years have come and gone and I've learned many things — some good, some bad
but is this not part of growing up memories will always linger of the great times with my friends we all worked hard at forming a school and in the process shaped our lives.

Dr. Gustavo Lopez-Munoz and Annette Lopez-Munoz

MARLEAN FRANCES LUMPKIN
"Marlean"
Scottsville, Virginia

Fairfax has taught me so much. It has been not only an education, but an experience that I cannot describe in words. These three years have given me so much — friends, and a treasury of memories and experiences that I will not forget easily or soon. Underclassmen, remember, patience and love are the keys to happiness here.

I, Diane, leave Fairfax Hall with happy and sad memories. I leave all memories of horseback riding to Tally-Ho. I thank Mrs. Boyd for all she has done for me. Good luck to everyone.

"Of poems, prayers, and promises
And things that we believe in,
How sweet it is to love someone,
How right it is to care,
How long it's been since yesterday
And what about our dreams
And all the memories we shared?"

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

THE WAY WE WERE

1971-75
Julie crept in an escape artist, "rushed" a few people out and left a "professional."
Kate began in Weejuns, changed to riding pants, and ended up with jeans.
Groon came in for first and second periods, took a break, came back in time for graduation.
Ann hopped in throwing firecrackers and left a friendly Daughter of the American Revolution.

1972-75
Kim Davis tiptoed in feeling down, got to know the barn and the field, and left upward bound.
Katie came in with an "Anne Frank" diary, changed her life style a bit, but still left a scholar.
Mary Esther looked at Fairfax over her glasses, decided to stay and argue her point and left winning it.
Marlean skipped in with pigtails, climbed over mountains in Vermont, and painted her way out.
Spas stumbled in on two left feet, tripped, and left on two right feet (bent cigarette and all).
Gigi hit Fairfax with one vocabulary word — goozleburg, learned some new jokes, and left laughing.
Charlie tripped in, became a meanie, and rushed out.

1972-75
Lee came in a southern statesman, cooled a lot of hot heads, and left a social organizer.
Helen "holaed" in, infected us with her contagious laughter, and "Pabloed" out.
Jill walked in, flew around, and left a trail of broken hearts.
Annette drifted in mute, asked a few too many questions, and left talking up a storm.
Kim Marshall came in liking Wayne and left loving him.
Mudd strolled in, headed toward the phone, acquired a severe case of dialitis, and left us with a Tally Ho.
Wes came in, wrote for a while, and chuckled out.
Cathy jogged in searching, found a sunny spot, and left on a cloud of elation.
Janie trotted in on Siraff, rose to the top, and left fighting for the little guys.
Dianne Yow floated in singing rhymes, picked a few tunes, and left a "lady of the island."

1974-75
Salle Bell flashed in, focused on Fairfax, and shuttered out.
Kim Biliter tooted in, had a blast with the juniors, and took off with the seniors.
Onna came in quietly, set a few people straight, and jaunted off to New York.
Melanie came in subdued, made a few bets, and left many a friend.
Pam came in an ingenue, and left strictly vogue.
Susan jogged in ball in hand, appointed a dictator, and left a Mother Superior.
Sue rode in with Terry, tried to stay awake in P.O.D., succeeded, and rode out on Walnut.
Shelly slipped in, found an orange Volkswagon, and left with a new phone number.
Nancy came in blinding people with her braces, handed out popcorn comforts, and left as she came in, smiling.
Maggot walked in knowing the future of "The Young and the Restless," was immediately accepted, and left waiting for her prediction to come true.

A Thought For Today: Rivers are like lives. The more contributions they gain from friendships, the bigger they grow. Friendly, quiet little streams that join them in their long troublesome journey to the sea make them strong and mighty. The helpful contributions of love and kindness we gain from friends make our journey of life better and richer.

Congratulations to the class of 1975 and best wishes to everyone.

JUST FOR TODAY:

Just for today I will try to live through this day only and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for 12 hours that would appall me if I felt that I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for today I will be happy. This assures to be true what Abraham Lincoln said: "Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be."

Just for today I will try to strenghten my mind. I will learn something useful. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration.

Just for today I will exercise my soul in three ways: I will do someone a good turn, and not get found out; I will do at least two things I don't want to do — just for exercise; and today, if my feelings are hurt, I will not show it to anyone.

Just for today I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, criticize not one bit, and not try to improve or regulate anybody except myself.

Just for today I will have a quiet half-hour all by myself for meditation and relaxation. During this half-hour I will try to get a better prespective on my life.

Just for today I will be unafraid. Especially I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe that as I give to the world the world will give to me. — Anonymous.

IF I HAVE FAITH

I know the sun will shine again,
I know the Spring will come again,
I know the flowers will bloom again,
If I have faith.

However lonely I may be,
However dark the clouds I see,
The way will open up for me,
If I have faith.

Let all my world be shattered,
The flame of love die out,
My dreams like dead leaves scattered,
And still I would not doubt.

I know a star will shine for me,
I know at last that I shall see
The triumph of Eternity,
If I have faith.

Shadows of a Friend

Today I lost my best friend,
And it seems as though my life has come, slowly to an end.
My mind is no longer with me,
And all I want is simply to be free.
But my feelings for life, now, have surely changed,
Everything is so distorted and so awfully strange.
I can't erase the past from my mind,
How can my life become tied-up in such an unreal bind?
All I seem to do is endlessly cry,
When all I want to do is give up and not try.
I don't want to simply run away,
And yet at times, it's so damn hard to stay.
Did I care too much again?
For now she has left me, my best friend.
She was always there for me to turn to,
And I sit and ask myself, "Now who?"
But I guess I'll never know,
Because the pain is far too deep to go.

Best Wishes to Those Who Will Always Linger in our Memories
The Sophomore Class

There are places I'll remember all my life, though some have changed
Some forever; not for better
Some are gone.
And some remain
All these places had their meanings
With lovers and friends, I still can recall
Some are gone and some with me
But in my life I have loved them all.

Judy Collins

Long ago far away life was clever close your eyes . . .
Remember
is a place from long ago
Remember
filled with everything you know
Remember
when you're sad and feeling down
Remember
turn around
Remember
life is just a memory
Remember
close your eyes and you can see
Remember
think of all that life can be Remember

Dream
love is only a dream.
Remember
life is never as it seems

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF FAIRFAX HALL

The birth of Fairfax Hall is chronicled in a local newspaper, THE VALLEY VIRGINIAN. on August 6, 1920, in a brief news announcement: "Professor J. Noble Maxwell, president of the new Fairfax Hall, states that the school for young women will be opened in the former Brandon Hotel, purchased for that purpose last summer. Mr. Maxwell, who is a former Stauntonian and during recent years was successful business manager of Lewisburg Seminary, has prepared a handsome catalogue for Fairfax Hall."

A later newspaper article reported; "The opening of Fairfax Hall has made the twin cities (Waynesboro and Basic City) richer by ninety-seven young ladies representing twenty-eight states and foreign countries."

So the new school came into being, succeeding an earlier Brandon Institute which had operated in the same building from 1911 to 1919. Under the Maxwell administration Fairfax Hall made rapid progress both in the academic field and in improvements to the physical plant.

The gymnasium with indoor pool was built in 1926-27 of English half-timers and stucco on a base of North Carolina granite. The outdoor pool was added as a landscape feature; the stable was built; and extensive plantings of holly, magnolia, and dogwood were made on its wooded campus. Following Mr. Maxwell's death on March 26, 1932, the school was headed by his widow, Mrs. Octavia Goode Maxwell, and his late sister, Miss Frances May Maxwell. In June, 1936, the Fairfax properties were purchased by the late William Benjamin Gates, Sr., then president of Blackstone College, who established an accredited junior college department, enlarged academic course offerings, and strengthened the physical education and fine arts program. A new dormitory was built in 1948 affording rooms for additional students and improved classroom and laboratory facilities. The junior college department was discontinued in 1956 to concentrate in the preparatory school field.

William Benjamin Gates, Sr., died on July 6, 1959, after serving as president of Fairfax Hall from 1936 and after more than fifty-seven years of service in the field of public and independent school education. He was succeeded by his son, Fairfax Hall's academic dean, William Banjamin Gates, Jr., who continued as the school's fourth chief administrative officer until his retirement in 1973. At that time

Harry L. Nash, Jr., became president of Fairfax Hall, after having served as business manager since July 1, 1947,and in July, 1974, Harry L. Nash, III, joined the staff as business manager. Dr. Robbins L. Gates, formerly on the faculty of Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, was academic dean from September, 1949, to June, 1965, leaving to become a member of the faculty at Mary Baldwin College, Staunton. Deans serving since have included Mrs. Mildred Taylor Smith, Mrs. Evelyn T. Kiser, Mrs. Mary D. Lester, and Mrs. Lillian B. Skene. Theodore E. Bruning, Jr., was appointed headmaster July 1, 1973.

Faced with steadily rising operating costs and declining income due to reduced student enrollment, an announcement was made on February 13, 1975, that Fairfax Hall would cease operating as an independent boarding school at the close of its 55th year on May 31.

The same local newspaper, which heralded its birth in 1920, editorialized on its closing:

"For more than half a century this school has stood guard over Waynesboro from its lofty perch to the east. Far above that, it has been a vital part of the city . . . a tradition . . . a landmark . . . an academic influence . . . a contributor to civic pride.

"Like the death of a valued friend, the impending loss of Fairfax Hall brings memories flooding back . . . memories of colorful laurel-chain ceremonies, of happy ring figures of young ladies dashing into town for a Coke. These things and so many others which every graduate will recall with a special fondness cannot easily be replaced.

"In uncounted ways, Fairfax Hall has served a good neighbor from the day of its founding in 1920. It has provided steady employment for 55 or more people; its students and their parents have been a factor in the retail and travel economy; its fine reputation and its national advertising have brought attention to Waynesboro from far and wide; members of its staff have played major roles in community endeavors . . .

"Whatever transpires, Fairfax Hall stands as a monument to the important concept of individualized, independent education. It's a concept the nation can ill afford to let slip away; yet it is slipping away.

"We know now how, but perhaps those hundreds who have loved and respected Fairfax Hall and who today call it alma mater, still may find the road to survival. An institution which has given so much to so many surely deserves the effort."

Yesterday came floating by,
smiled,
and asked to buy some time,
if I had it to lend.
A penny's worth perhaps,
for rainbow dreams to ease me back through times not easily forgotten,
and smiles I knew so well the day before.
Slowly passing by in front of me, a collage of faces,
seasons,
and time,
They, alone, can be seen through the cloudy border of a world that was . . .
Yet,
all now seem silent,
remote,
still,
and timeless,
almost . . .
A solitary tear makes its journey downward along my already stained face, tugging at my memory with its every movement.
Sometimes too late seems much too sad.
Time moves so slowly, didn't it move so slow . . . just when we thought we had it, our time was gone.
